Rochester Lions President's Message.

Dear Fellow Lions

I don't know what we did to Mother Nature, but she unleashed her anger toward us on Sunday, May 21 for the Heritage Festival car show. But we did have 23 diehards show up, needless to say, they all got a trophy and our undying gratitude. Although we had a very strong sponsor base, because of all the hard work of the car show committee, we were not able to realize much revenue from 50/50 raffle and t-shirt sales. It's unfortunate that the 9 or 10 months of hard work by the car committee did not have a more successful conclusion. Kudos to Bill Claussen, Celia Domalewski, Tim Brooks, Ted Reynolds, Eric Lewis, John Reamsma, Chris DeVilling and Paul Clarke for their hard work.

I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank a few Lions who embody the spirit of Lionism. John Benczik, Mike Roberts, Brett Antenucci always seem to be involved; Steve Rapotec for thinking outside the box; Larry Cole and Bernie Ris are rocks under the radar; John Reamsma for leading us in "Happy Birthday"; Glenn Sattelmeier for making sure I have a bell to ring; John Cadieux for making sure the numbers add up; Connie Shelton for weeding out the shaft in our membership (often a thankless job); and for Kathy Gladd for scribing the newsletter.

I would be remiss if I did not single out two individuals who I have a deep appreciation for their dedication making my job easier. Arnold Sell is the epitome of a secretary. His reports are timely, his concern for accuracy in the minutes, ordering plaques and certificates and whatever is needed to run our club and meetings. We don't appreciate Arnold enough. I do and THANK YOU!

How can I forget Don Westphal and his inspiration for award winning floats. Dan Williams for making S'mores at a moment's notice with my Mom.

Celia Domalewski is special. She seems to have her fingers into everything this club does. Her management and organizational skills are invaluable. I've valued her points of view highly and found them to be insightful and thought provoking. She is a real asset to this club. Thank You Celia for all you do.

And, Thank You to the membership who in their own way, have supported this club and our projects. I trust you will support our next President, Brett Antenucci the same.

Thank You for the honor and privilege of being your President.

Sincerely,

David L. McKenzie
